

YEAR 5 SINGH UP AT THE O2...& WARHOL!

Year 5 Singh and Warhol travelled to the O2 in London on Wednesday evening to take part in the Young Voices show. The children arrived at the O2 at around 13:30pm and started their rehearsal at 14:15pm. The concert began at 19:00pm and the children treated the audience of over 20,000 people, which included their parents, to a wonderful rendition of songs including "Birdhouse in Your Soul" and "Ain't no Mountain High Enough". The singing was led by various artists including Natalie Williams, Tabby Callaghan and the Beatbox Collective. The Children looked great in their Young Voices T-shirts and created a fantastic atmosphere when they all turned on their torches to light up the O2! A Special thanks must go to the PSA who paid for the coach which took the children to the O2 and to all the parent helpers.
